INTRODUCTION

Born in Chicago in the turbulent 60's, I was born in a time of dreams. I was raised with the belief that I can and we can. I was challenged many times along the way by others and by my SELF. The education process continues.

I have always believed that I could live my dreams. There were many instances where I have noticed my dreams coming true, where they cross over from dream to accepted reality. I have done many things where I have tested my SELF and to my astonishment, I have awakened to a changed reality, one where my dreams have now become true.

We can. We can. We are living proof.

Pieces of a Dream is intended to assist you in the creation of a world where dreams can become real and thoughts of heaven, realized. Is it so hard to believe that all of your dreams can come true? Let us discover the truth that is living in you. It is this truth that awaits realization. The path is marked by the unknown. Let us no longer fear what we want.

Each page has five distinct parts, a phrase or word heading, a section of poetry, a section of philosophy, a thought and an affirmation. Each page is geared to redeem your thought. Most of the thoughts that we convey to others usually take a linguistic form. Each page is designed to assist you in creating a new definition or new language mindset for yourself. A mindset where it is now easier to achieve your dreams, goals or any desire you wish.

As you read, allow yourself freedom to live what you know and cross over into the unknown to become what you will, your dream.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

PURIFICATION

PURIFICATION

Chapter 1

RECOGNITION

*Start down the road to paradise,
Put the key in the ignition.
Turn on the engine of redemption,
Push the pedal of recognition.*

ABNORMAL

*Mainstream thought would have the status quo
Be of normal thought and average impact.
If one thought of abnormal as above normal,
How much more creativity would be the normal act?*

Normal in our society is living too close to the poverty line. Abnormal are billionaires. Normal is the sheep while abnormal is the shepherd. Let us redeem our concepts. Let us keep creativity alive by using it.

Be above normal, be your SELF.

I will redeem my SELF.

AUTHORITY

*Pick up the pen and write the pages of your life.
You can depict a world full of peace
And a lot less strife.*

Authority in law means permission. The ultimate authority granted you author of your life. You are the author of your life, therefore the one who gives permission to the world. This power you grant in each breath. Be fully aware of the power you give and to whom it is given. Truly examine the so-called authorities in your life.

You are the authority in your life.

I will be aware of my power.

CONDITION

*Training has linked some
To the power of conditions.
Your eyes have given insight
To the creator of each rendition.*

Is your life set in circumstances and conditions?
Can you see your SELF as the creator of each condition of your life? Why is it called your life, if it is dependent upon condition? In truth, your life is your choice. Let the conditions of your life come from within you as pieces of the dream.

Recondition your SELF.

I will create the conditions in life.

DEATH

*Death is a remembrance,
Reminding you of your new free beginnings
Preparing your way are
All the wonderful endings.*

Death is change, a change that represents freedom, freedom from the known. This freedom from the known opens you up to change. Death occurs every time you change your mind. Let yourself die to each moment and you will flow effortlessly with the changes that nature brings.

Death is part of the flow of your divine nature.

I will accept changes as they occur in truth.

DELUSION

*You don't see what's deep inside,
While looking at the pie in the sky.*

*What's in your heart, you deny
And hold as truth, what's before the eye.*

Look beyond what you think you see. Accept your SELF completely. The truth is, you are love. You are created from the only source of love there is, the Creator. We can only be deluded when we don't accept the truth.

Accept what is in your heart.

I will love my SELF completely.

DEPENDENCE

*I will become completely free,
When I learn to depend on me.*

That which you depend on becomes your master. You become a slave when you don't remember and use your creativity (Creator within). The road to independence is through accepting your divine nature. This divine nature is truth. Love your SELF. Exercise the Creator within.

Creation is liberation.

I will create in each moment.

EARN-A-LIVING

*Food, clothing and shelter are key to life.
When the land is owned by someone other than you
And you are not producing clothing or food,
Dependent you will be and earn-a-living you will do.*

Easiest way to earn-a-living is to live in truth. Start dealing directly with what gives you life. Remove the steps between you and the truth. Resource means God again. You are a resource, which means use your life to create a living that doesn't have to be earned, but enjoyed.

Create an abundant life.

I will live in truth.

EXPECTATION

*Did you expect your first breath?
Let us be grateful for the next
Until life becomes what we call death.*

Expectation becomes one more obstacle to overcome or belief to be undone. Either way, expectation does not allow for gratitude when it is not met. Let go of all expectations and become aware of the eternal peace and joy that await your choice.

Peace and joy await your openness.

I am the way.

FAULT

*Remain positive about each found fault,
Each one will be found in the redemption vault.*

Whenever you find a fault, make this learning experience the great beginning of your new life. Let this moment become the death of the old you and the birth of the new and redeemed you. Celebrate and rejoice, for you are now on the path to becoming your higher SELF. Each found fault indicates a greater awareness of the essence of your desired dream.

Dreams are realized as faults are uncovered.

I will uncover my dreams.

HISTORY

They say, to know your self, you must read history.

As I read, I find it's still a mystery.

That story is not me, it's for someone else you see.

It's not my life, it's his story.

Will you spend your time getting to know what someone else tells you is important, or will you get to know your SELF? Spend your time creating your life story.

Live your story.

I will be aware of my self in this life.

HYPOCRITE

*On one hand, happy to say what you say,
And on the other, happy to do what you do.
Can we get these two together
And let your days as a hypocrite be through?*

You will no longer be a hypocrite, when your intentions, thoughts, words, beliefs and actions all match.

You were made from the Creative One.

I will allow my divine nature to manifest all.

LAST WORD

*Yelling in anger at the people you love
Is really quite absurd.
Has a discussion ever ended in peace,
When you had to have the last word?*

How you feel about your SELF is the question to be asked when you must have the last word. How confident are you about what you believe to be true? Do you have doubt? Have you taken the time to understand? Peace will come through wisdom and understanding. Seek to understand.

Peace is the last word.

I will offer peace.

MENTAL TRAP

We have been taught that we need to be taught.

The above statement is a circular mental trap if we don't learn the lessons life is teaching. It seems obvious, but if we don't free ourselves from need, we remain a slave. Life; the teacher becomes ineffective. Fear, doubt, guilt, shame, etc... attempt to gain attention from you. As you give these terms your attention and your life, they accept. One problem feeds on another burning your energy and using up your life. Illusion is in sight until the dawn of the truth.

In truth, there is no need.

I will let go of need, thereby creating space for desire fulfillment.

NO DOUBT

*No double talk, no second thought,
When the search for love is true.
Love is here, no need for fear.
Love has its eye on you.*

Second guessing your SELF is a clear way to block the path. Accept your choices without doubt. Acceptance is key. Let us find acceptance as the redeemer of judgment and see a more peaceful world.

There is no room for doubt.

I will let go of judgement.

NO NEED

*Isn't this situation quite odd?
We think we're breathing air,
When we're really breathing God.*

There is no need for fear, because in truth there is no need. We have been taught that we need God. Each breath you take confirms that you don't need God, you have been given God. Accept the gift of God in each breath and create no needs.

I place no need before God.

I will accept the peace of God in each breath.

OPINION

*Your opinion creates your perspective
Is it based on what was written or what was said?
Or will you allow truth to fill your head?*

They say that everyone has an opinion. The question concerns the substance, which created your opinion. Opinions based in truth come from knowledge gained through experience. Words are filled with opinions you have yet to experience. Create your opinions through living life.

Live your opinion.

I will live my opinions.

PROFIT

Profit is a term based in a capitalistic economy.

It is a term of unnatural seed.

It seeks to make more than is exchanged.

Its father is the deadly sin called greed.

Create perfect exchanges. When exchanges occur with balance of value, profit has no life, and all win. Profit can only exist within perception. Profit is belief to be undone. Appreciate balanced life exchanges and your dream will come alive.

Open your heart and mind to true value.

I will be aware of true value in every relationship.

QUANTITY

Can you count the amount of love you give?

Are you concerned with keeping score?

Give as much love as you can,

In return, you will receive so much more.

Can you conceive of infinity? If God is eternal, and God is love, then the source of love will never run out. There is no reason to keep track of how much love you give. You give love by opening to the Source of love. Let there be no condition that prevents you from being open to love.

Unconditional love is eternal.

I will give unconditional love eternally.

RELIGION

Separation is the father of religion.

The need for religion is a belief to be undone. Religion is the process of re-linking back to God. We have never been separated from God. Believed separation gave birth to religion. Religion is a system of illusions. Let religion perform its duty, allow religion to become the transparent window to God. Let it fade away.

You are the living truth.

I will accept oneness with the Creator.

SELFISH

We call people selfish when we don't get our wish.

When you call someone selfish, examine the truth and you'll see that you were also being selfish, wanting what you want. All of your thoughts come from the SELF. Is it possible to be something other than selfish? Be selfish until love overflows, it is at this point you will have enough to give to the world.

Be selfish. Give your SELF to the world.

I will give my SELF to the world.

STATE

*The state is a fictitious entity called a corporation.
Considered sovereign while it owns land and citizen.
Trained beliefs in perception give rise to falsehood,
Many of us misunderstand life and the shape it is in.*

What is your present state of being?

Create your world as well as your dreams.

I will exist in a state of happiness and creativity.

TALKING

*Talking can be heard by the ear,
Communication is on the inside.
When you realize love understands,
You can set all your words aside.*

Talking is not necessarily communication. Talking is good when intentions are good. Balance is created through silence. A love filled hug usually says all that is needed. Keep your intentions pure and your relationships will reflect that purity.

Communicate peace and love.

I will give my SELF to the world.

WWJD

What would Jesus do?

Be Christ.

It has never been sufficient to just be Christ-like. Follow a great example and accept your Christhood as Jesus did. Anything less would sell your SELF, the world and Jesus short.

You can do it. I have faith in you.

I will be Christ.

Chapter 2

LETTING GO (DEATH)

SET

*Death is a remembrance,
Reminding you of your new free beginnings
Preparing your way
Are all the wonderful endings.*

BEING RIGHT

*Ask your SELF,
Is being right worth the fight?
Would you give up this momentary fame,
For the chance to have happiness as your claim?*

Being right has claimed many moments of self-importance. Being right has been the justification of many negative reactions. Will you continue to fight to be right? Will you choose peace and happiness? The choice is always yours. Ask your heart.

There is no proof, only acceptance.

I will choose peace and happiness.

BEST FOOT

*When you take the time to clean both feet,
You leave no room for deceit.*

Do not hide any part of you because when you do, you hide from your SELF. This is self-deception. Whatever in your life is dirty, clean it. Love your SELF completely. Allow the ones you love to see all of you. You are love.

Truth is impressive.

I will love my SELF.

BLAME

*Do I not want to see the stupidity in me?
Am I so high and mighty?
Don't I remember when I was there,
With that blank look
And that "I don't know" stare?*

Is blame really worth any of your attention?
Could you live without it? What really occurs when you blame someone or something? What does it accomplish?

Life's load is made lighter without blame.

I will focus on the source of good in life.

BUSY

*Are you too busy?
Do you spend your life on the run?
Do you ever give yourself the gift
Of taking a long walk in the sun?*

Have you ever said, "I'm too busy"? Busy doing what? Whenever you hear yourself say this, ask the question, "what am I doing". Am I living my dream? Balance in life is usually found in maintaining peace while in motion. Balance stillness and motion at some point during your day if not always. Learn your balance point.

Know Thy Self.

I will listen to my SELF.

CAN'T

*Power of can is focused in all directions
Belief in can't is as deadly infections.
Whenever someone says this word to you,
Remember it is not true.*

You can. Can't is a word that produces negativity, so give it no energy. Allow energy to be directed in a positive way for you and the world. Can allows for the dream. Can opens the power for living.

All things are possible.

I will focus on what I can do and be.

CITIZEN

*A citizen is one who owes allegiance
To the state upon which he is born.
The state owns the citizen to such a degree
That the citizen has yet to open his eyes and see.*

Are you sure you want to be a citizen?
Examine the relationship between you and the state.

Know thy SELF.

I will examine all of my relationships.

COLONIZATION

Why does the European want to conquer the world?

What part does colonization play?

When these questions are asked,

Bullets fly, but there is nothing to say.

Colonization seeks power through deceit. The truth is ignored on many different subjects. All questions must be asked and answered in peace, in order to have peace. Is colonization the answer for you? Colonization is temporary. The truth is unmasked.

Sovereignty is for everyone.

I will accept my divine sovereign nature.

DOCUMENT

A document could be words on a page

Words are not a truth substitute.

*Where did you learn to accept documents as fact,
Some educational institute?*

Documents do not define your identity. Deception lives in false beliefs. Let documents serve a higher purpose, let them show you insight into the writer. Look deep into the meaning and value of the words, remember who you are at all times and you will learn the truth and develop insight into your SELF.

Document insight.

I will develop insight.

DIVORCE

*Desire and fulfillment arrive at the altar
When someone said,
“Does anyone know why these two Should not be wed?”*

Hold your peace. Divorce is a dividing force.
Oneness occurs when you accept unity. Let desire and fulfillment, live forever together.

Unity of desire and fulfillment is peace.

I accept unity.

DRUGS

Take the drugs by prescription

Your doctor will insist.

While dependency rises for unnatural means

Your best friend has become your pharmacist.

Drug dealers on street corners are only changing hands, while the supply of drugs has increased so has the demand. The joke is, now that drugs have been legalized, it must be okay. Let us maintain our awareness. Let us remember the natural rhythm living within us leading us to healthier states of being.

Natural health is the way to eternal life.

I will lead a natural life.

FORGET

*Forget and remember
Are like life and death.
Each opens to the other
As balance found in each breath.*

Forgetting and letting go are synonymous. When you forget, you withdraw your energy. Forgetting is a process of freedom. As you forget, you start the process of remembering other pieces of the dream. Focus your energy on the pieces of the dream you desire to create.

You are the dream.

I will remember the dream.

FRUSTRATION

*Desire to give Without expecting to get.
Until you know your SELF
You haven't seen your best yet.*

Expectation placed between desire and fulfillment is one cause of frustration. The expectation becomes the wall and not the way. Open is the way to fulfill all your desires. Let us become aware of the nature of desire and fulfillment, so patience, peace, faith and joy can greet us on the path called life.

Place nothing between desire and fulfillment.

I will remain open and peaceful.

HABIT

*Repeating without rethinking,
Redemption has lost its way.
Give the unknown your awareness
It will show you a brighter day.*

Habits provide temporary false comforts. Security is believed to be understood. The flow of truth called change is being ignored. The unknown is one of your greatest teachers. The unknown presents you with change. It leads you back to your natural state of innocence.

Embrace the unknown.

I will change as life presents the newest truth.

I DON'T CARE

*I will face life,
Making love the object of sharing.
Opening up to all,
With all forms of caring.*

This attitude and statement takes away the caring that you want when you need it. Refuse to allow yourself to speak this way, because your words do have power. Use this power to create what you will. What is the truth? Do you care? Focus your power with love.

Direct your power toward the essence of your caring.

I care.

ILLUSIONS

*How many more illusions can be sold
To support the ones of old?
While the truth is being ignored,
Many lies are told.*

Lies are not real and therefore, can only be illusionary at best. One illusion is only to support another. Belief must be withdrawn from all illusions.

There is only truth.

I will recognize, speak and live the truth.

IMAGE

*Confused by what is seen;
Reflections of my inner self are made manifest.
Images of reality are faces of dreams.
Hard to see through the illusion,
But I'm doing my best.*

When becoming trapped within a world of images, it seems difficult to see the creator of the images. The creator of these images is you. You are not trapped. Your dream is you, awaiting your attention. Give rise to your dreams and the images will be created by this attention.

Images are the inner you reflected outward.

I will place attention on my dreams.

INCOME

*Is your income source an unnatural fictional entity?
Is the value of your money determining your worth?
If value in your life is dependent upon perception,
You are missing your connection with the earth.*

What are you letting in your life? Is your value growing? Are you accepting definitions from outside of your SELF? Are you accepting laws and rules that don't appreciate you? What you appreciate, appreciates you.

Accept all that appreciates you.

I will appreciate all and all will appreciate in return.

NEGATIVE

*I thought I was being careful,
But found that much was missing.
I thought the empty space in my heart was healed
Instead of leaving me with a peaceful silence,
I found my heart was hissing.*

Thought can be your friend or it can be your enemy, the choice is up to you. Being careful is about paying attention to your SELF. Examine your thoughts to see if they are working for you. If not, change your thoughts. You are not a victim. Happiness is a choice, choose it.

You are the creator of your thoughts.

I will create happiness by creating positive thoughts.

OBLIGATION

Are we born owing allegiance?

Did we start out in the red?

I believe creation is perfect,

We started in the black instead.

Freedom of choice is the truth; no obligation exists. Believe what you will and maybe you'll find you want to resist. You choose to breathe. Your life is your choice. Heaven and hell, real and dream are all created from the same choice.

You are free to choose.

I will choose freedom.

OWNERSHIP

*Our ancestors believe the earth is for everyone.
Each day is to be enjoyed underneath the sun.*

*Citizens are considered the state's property.
Ownership suggests that it holds the key.*

You already have it all in truth. You will not take any of the perceived owned valuables with you. You own your SELF; there is nothing else.

All is to be shared as it truly is.

I will open the flow by sharing.

PAST

*I didn't enjoy the present,
I was getting no where fast.
Happiness made a home in me,
When I start letting go of the past.*

Let go of the negative past. Let go of the positive past. Neither exists. Only now exists. Create in the now and you will know now. There is no reason to look backwards, especially when the present, the gift of now is so beautiful.

You are here, now.

I will let go of the past, for it is truly dead.

PROBLEM

False logic.

We have been taught to search for the solution within the problem. This is false logic. When concentration is occurring, only one thought occupies the mind. It stands to reason that if focus is on the problem, the problem still exists. Focus on the solutions and there will only be solutions. For a solution only exists when there is no problem.

In truth, there is no problem.

I will let go of problems, thereby creating space for solutions.

RAGE

*Awake from the shame with no one else to blame,
Start looking real deep inside.
'Cause on the way to love
The heavens up above,
We need to set this rage aside.*

The energy of rage or anger can be better directed. Withdraw belief in the logic that told you that rage or anger was the solution.

Let it go.

I will let go of rage and anger.

REVENUE

*If you don't have revenue,
They won't think about you.
But if you do,
They'll be right on top of you.*

– Jeffery M. Bertrand

Your value is beyond the value given to you by the system. The system does not define who you are, but rather it helps you witness the real you. The system doesn't pay any attention to you if you don't feed it its currency. Do not look to the system for guidance, but use it as you see fit.

Create your divine purpose.

I will create value in my life.

SEPARATION

*A moment offered to you
By God's good grace.
Heaven now has a home.
A forever moment
When separation has no space.*

Separation is a mere belief to be undone. You have never been separated from God. No room to support the idea of greater or less than. All has been created; therefore, all is in the ALL, all is one.

There is no separation.

I will accept unity.

SHOULD

*Does should really exist?
Is there something you wish to be?
Saying something should be another
Is like saying, I should not be me.*

The use of should is out of order. Ungrateful and denial gave birth to should. All things are what they are and all things will be what they will be, no more and no less. Nature is divinity in motion as your life in redemption.

Accept all as is and peace will accept you.

I am that I am.

SLOGANS

*What's good for the goose,
May not be what's good for the gander.
Most of this country's slogans
Are no more than propaganda.*

Thou shall not kill. In God we trust. We come in peace. Bullets and enslavement have followed these slogans. Slogans are no more than what some people want to believe. If you are to get to know your SELF, accept the truth, nothing else. Be aware of what is in you and all around you. Everything is not what it seems.

Awareness is the key.

I will be aware, as the dream becomes real.

STRUGGLE

*Pain is caused when struggle is the belief,
Peaceful thoughts come to offer relief.*

*Wanting to experience
Life's happier times,
Be easy and see
The ease at which life unwinds.*

Struggle is not the answer. When you ask your SELF what you want, is struggle a part of that answer? Struggle is obviously a disease, because when you are in struggle, you are not at ease. Ease into peace.

Be easy with your SELF.

I will let go of struggle and give way to peace.

SURVIVE

*When you become afraid to live abundantly,
You have lost the nerve.
Your dream is no longer serving you,
Your reality is to serve.*

Survive (serve-live) means to live to serve. Truth awaits your discovery. Truly, you can do anything. Let go of powerlessness. You have the power to change the rules and the laws through a change in your mindset.

Sovereignty is your birthright.

I accept my divine sovereign nature.

TOMORROW

No longer borrowing sorrow from tomorrow.

Looking for the good in each moment,

Leaving no place for fear.

Tomorrow is not promised, because it doesn't exist. It never comes. No longer look to the future as the answer to your unloved present. Accept now and your life will be a present. Face your SELF and find all the beauty there is in every moment called now.

Now is the only time.

I will love all completely now.

TRADITION

*Do you know why you don't follow me
And have trouble understanding what I say?
It's because I say what I mean
And I don't kneel when I pray.*

Sometimes we allow traditions to block us from listening to others. Traditions give way to addictions. Let unity live through the beauty of differences. Let acceptance be the redeemer of judgment.

The way is acceptance.

I will accept all.

EDUCATION

Chapter 3

RESURRECTION

HERU
(Horus - Hru)

*Your new life awaits you.
You must die to cure the infection.
Complete acceptance of death
Is only the first step toward resurrection.*

ADMIRATION

*When I look at you,
I see the Creator looking back at me,
Saying, "I am here in all beauty".
I was sent an angel, so that I could see.*

Admiration is the process of giving peace to the world, simply by accepting the beauty within. If you spend your life seeking reasons to admire all, you will find peace in the process. Peace will fill the entire world and there will be nothing else. Because God is omnipresent, there is surely beauty in all.

Beauty is everywhere; find it.

I will seek the beauty in everything, seen and unseen.

ATTITUDE

*Gratitude is a great attitude,
Creating ripples of warmth throughout.
Life's energetic and passionate moments
Fill me with joy
And pull all the goodness out.*

Attitude starts a cycle of life flowing. Attitude, also, determines the direction of that life flow. Freedom from birth and with power of choice always available, which will you choose?

Heaven is the attitude of gratitude.

I will use my attitude to create happiness.

AWAKEN

*Open my eyes
And maybe then I'll see
That all the solutions live within me.*

I have spent a lot of time looking outside my SELF for beauty, but I know it is through my eyes that beauty is given its life.

Life can be heaven now that I am awake.

I will look lovingly on all, because I choose love.

COURAGE

*Swallow my pride and a whole lot more,
If I want to make it through sanity's door.
But do it I will and do it I must,
For ignorance I know I cannot trust.*

The greatest courage you'll ever experience is the courage to be what God created you to be, your SELF. We spend a lot of time concerning ourselves with what others think. Have the courage to be you. Your strength comes from within.

I am what God created me.

I will remain one with my SELF through it all.

DESIRE

*Floating to heaven on a cloud,
Nothing could take me higher
Than the love I feel Flowing as life's desire.*

Desire means of the father. Your desires are created naturally from the Creative Source, the SELF (Spirit Elevating Life Force). Allow oneness with the Creator by accepting all of your desires.

Accepting desires brings oneness with the Creator.

I will accept my SELF by accepting my desires.

EGO

*When telling someone how to run their life
You might tell yourself to resist.
Removing the word 'should' comes easy,
It doesn't exist.*

Who do we think we are? Have we truly exalted ourselves? Do we not have enough to do without telling someone what they should do? Can we love each other as we are? The answer is yes! Our ego will become healed through love of all.

The world is healed through love.

I will love all.

EXAMINE

*Directed toward peace,
While walking on faith through the unknown.
Laughing with my guide and enjoying the view,
Not waiting to be shown.*

Examine (ex-amen) means to bring to light that which is hidden. The Peace of God is hidden. Recognition provides this examination and resurrection opens new perspectives, shining a bright light on the beautiful energetic essence within life.

Observing beauty lights the way.

I will love all.

FIRE

*Turn up the heat
Turning flickers into flames.
Fire burns away the impurities,
Leaving the truth; not games.*

Let your desires burn within. Trust and believe in your SELF. Give attention to your intention. Let the fire burn away all impurities. Redeem your SELF as the phoenix rising from the ashes.

The fire within is SELF.

I will focus my attention on SELF.

HARMONY

*Harmony occurs when the sounds you hear
Match the one you hold most dear.
At your center, where silence is profound
The only sound whose volume doesn't go down.*

Harmony knows you as well as you know your SELF. Harmony can be found in all. Harmony is spoken in all languages. The language of love has a special definition of harmony for you. Harmony is created in each relationship.

Create harmonious relationships.

I will create harmony.

HOPE

*Oceans of life appear to have you lost
When all has seemed to fail.
One thing left to guide you home
Hope now has set sail.*

Hope is the starting place for us all. Hope is the cornerstone of faith. Eternity is blessed with the substance. Hope is the beginning of all positive thinking. Let it guide you when you feel that you have lost everything and when you are inches from achieving your dreams.

Bless the world with hope.

I will give hope to all.

HUMBLE

*The pompous ones shout causing a rumble,
At the top of their lungs demanding you be humble.*

Humble means able to be human. Naturally, we have the ability to be human. Let us use our humility as unity within our global community. We have been taught to put ourselves beneath others and ideas. You have accepted this human form, but you are beneath no one and nothing.

Humble with a spiritually sovereign cause.

I will offer my humanness in peace.

KEEP ON

*Sometimes life seems hard,
But hard it will be until you create anew.
Redeem your thoughts to help you
Keep on the path that is true.*

If we didn't think there was a process to help life become easy, who knows? You are on the path to finding out how easy life can be. Accept what you are doing right now as a part of your inevitable happiness.

The best you can be is your SELF.

I am happy being me.

NOW

*Have you ever thought about
The silence of the letter 'k' in the word "know"?
Life gives you a test, asking you why and how.
The 'k' remains silent
Until you know what is happening now.*

The entire truth is being represented in every moment called now. Be aware of its beauty. You are a part of the beautiful living truth. Now, you are the truth that is related to all truth, connecting the dead past to the unborn future.

Awareness is now knowledge.

I will be aware of beauty in each moment.

OPPORTUNITY

Good times are like hearing music.

When you have a partner, don't pass up the chance.

The vibe is creating the groove in life.

Take the opportunity to dance.

Create joy and laughter, for they are our friends. Opportunities exist in each moment for the celebration of life. Let our dreams become our every choice and eternity will be heaven.

Celebrate each opportunity.

I will celebrate life.

RELEASE

Holding on tight puts your life in a bind.

You feel uneasy, its time for peace.

Give others freedom.

Your gift will also be release.

Release your SELF from all, become completely free. You will not be free until you release all from the binds you have created. Can you give love without expecting to receive? Many binds take the form of expectations. Release expectations, so all can be free to be.

Let your giving be free.

I will give freely.

RESPECT

*When I look at you, I can see myself too.
I place nothing between me and you.*

The greatest gift one can give to another is respect. By definition, respect means that you will duplicate the gift you give your SELF and offer it to another. This understanding applies universally, thus allowing freedom of expression as well as appreciation.

I offer you me.

I will give myself to the world.

RESPONSIBILITY

*Consciousness created me.
For I am the ability to respond.
Many have fallen victim
Not remembering that creativity is within him.*

Keep the creative juices flowing. For it is your creativity that keeps you alive. Remember, responsibility can only occur once there is creation. You were made of the Creator.

It is your responsibility to be a conscious creator.

I will create each moment within my conscious awareness.

SALVATION

*Born into sin,
The mind is entangled in belief.
Redeem your Self in love,
While peace comes to offer relief.*

Sin is misplaced belief. Salvation is the power of truth. Withdraw belief in sin, lies, illusions, doubt, fear, guilt and shame and you will transform your world. Truth will bring peace and love.

Live in truth.

I will live in truth.

SIMPLE

*Not sure what to say,
While trying to mount a defense.
Keep life simple,
Keep your silence.*

Simple is the way to peace. The silence that is at your center is like the eye of the storm. Remain at the center and carry peace wherever you go. Love the hurt away by bringing silence to all disruptions. Let all arguments end with a loving hug.

Remember we are together.

I will bring peace to all situations.

SOURCE

Are you benefiting from your natural connections?

Are you using the land as your resource?

Has money and a job replaced your production?

Has the system threatened you with lethal force?

What are your sources? What are you producing? Are you dependent? Your life is your source, how will you use it? Allow your SELF to be the source within your life. Become one with your SELF and with the Creator.

Abundance is the source.

I will accept mental, physical and spiritual sovereignty as my source.

SUBMIT

Are we stuck?

Is never our destination?

Can we arrive at a heavenly place?

The answer is yes, by submission's grace.

As you submit to your higher SELF, you will see your growth through transformation. This process is simple. Submit to the part of you that takes you to where you really want to be. Your SELF awaits you and your dreams. Oneness occurs as the dreamer submits to the dream and the dream submits to the dreamer.

Submit to your highest SELF.

I will submit to my dreams.

VIBRANCE

*Vibrance is life with its wonderful colors,
Understood in each beautiful breath.
Who you are is more powerful than the sun;
Your life touches all, well beyond death.*

Vibrance is pulsating life. Would you like to experience the vibrance of life, the life that pulsates throughout all of your relationships? You can. Open to all the beauty of the universe. Flip every negative thought into a positive.

Feel the vibrance of life.

I will follow my hunches in each impulse.

WRITE

*Created through love
Is the language of hearts and minds.
The Spirit reveals powerful life,
Through the avenue expression finds.*

Writing is a form of expression of the SELF. Writing is magical. It brings to life, in one form, the very essence of the writer. Use writing to create insight into your soul.

Express your SELF.

I will create insight through writing.

Chapter 4

ASCENSION

*Acceptance of where you are,
Has brought a sparkle to your eyes.
Creating on this newly found level
Lifts the spirit, causing it to rise.*

ANSWER

Free your mind.

Accept each choice you make.

Love your Self

In each step you take.

Questions you have place the path within you. The path is formed of choices called answers. Each answer represents another part of you and another piece of the dream, eventually leading you to your SELF.

You are the answer.

I will accept each answer I choose.

BECOME

*Seek to teach what you learn
And learn what you intend to teach.
When you create this process to become
The truth will always be within reach.*

Your highest SELF waits your becoming. When you seek to learn at the level of teacher, living the lessons learned becomes the key to success. Do as I do, is the highest form of teaching known. Doing is the highest form of learning.

Do all you can do to become all you can be.

I will do all I can do.

CENTER

*Traveling this inner journey,
Open to your SELF and enter.
Eternally welcoming you home
With love at your very center.*

Allow your SELF the peace of God. Give your SELF your life as often as you can and you will not be disappointed. Meet the Creator in the center by offering love and life to all. Center your SELF and allow your life to manifest naturally.

The center of the universe is your center.

I will enter the center peacefully.

COMMUNICATION

*When we communicate with each other,
We speak the language of love.
When the light goes on,
We bring to earth what is meant for heaven above.*

Communication is the process of becoming one.
Communication is beyond judgment.
Communication is acceptance beyond agreeing.
Unconditional love creates the environment for communication. Communicating unconditional love creates Heaven and your dreams.

We have become one.

I will communicate love.

COMMUNITY

*When people come together
And form the bonds of unity,
We will know what is meant
When we mention community.*

The power of community rests in our unity. Unity awaits our acceptance. When we redeem ourselves beyond judgement, oneness is guaranteed. Create as many reasons as you can to build unity within the community. There is more than enough love for everyone.

Unity is acceptance of the perfect One.

I will accept all beyond judgement.

COOPERATION

*When a winner is to be chosen,
Competition receives lots of mention.
When you want to create healthy relationships,
Give cooperation your attention.*

Cooperation seeks to find the place in the heart where exchanges can be made. Reciprocity is the mother of cooperation. When cooperation is sought, the relationship is given proper attention. Oneness is a guaranteed result of cooperation. Cooperate with your highest SELF to achieve oneness.

Always choose cooperation.

I will choose cooperation in all relationships.

DISCIPLINE

*Are you on an emotional roller-coaster,
Reacting without blinking?
If you want to get off,
Stop pushing buttons without thinking.*

Before you allow yourself to go through another argument with a loved one that ends in anger and silence, choose peace and joy. Choice is your power, use it in all situations. Discipline is the conscious choice to give your life as fulfillment to your desire. What will you choose?

Your life is your choice.

I will choose peace and joy.

EDUCATION

*Ignoring your SELF is illusion creation.
Giving your SELF attention is the only education.*

Education is derived from the word educe, which means to draw from within. This means that education is not given from the outside in, but from the inside out. Education is a gift your SELF gives you as you give your SELF attention. It works from mind to heart and back to mind, each complete cycle contains growth.

Your SELF awaits your attention and awareness.

I will educe my SELF.

ENCOURAGEMENT

*Without a word,
Your smile brings me home,
From a long journey without rest,
To a place where love lives.
Always encouraging me to be my best.*

To encourage is to give courage to one in such a way as to have that person see courage within oneself. Lead by example. Give your best in every situation and others have no choice, but to find the best in themselves.

Being your best encourages the world.

I will give my best in every situation.

ERECTION

*And this oneness will finally be,
Misdirection, misconception,
Insurrection, resurrection.
Life continues by erection.
Spiritual, mental and physical too
I know the truth and so do you.*

All want to feel complete erection. A life-giving spirit, an open mind, an erect penis and a life creating womb gave life and awareness to the world. Let us enjoy the union of our mental, spiritual and sexual energies to a sensual ecstasy.

All was created through sexual energy.

I will direct my sexual energy to a spiritual creativity.

EXERCISE

*Exercise the body within,
As you exorcise your life of sin.
Let your spirit flow,
While not letting your muscles go.*

Exercise and exorcise are equivalent. Both bring out the best in you. Maintain the flow of natural stimulation within. Keep the creative juices flowing by creating an energy flow. Exorcise or uncover your true divine SELF. Exercise your highest SELF, thereby growing accustomed to the power within.

Your divinity will ascend from within.

I will exercise my SELF.

FLOW

*Sometimes your energy seems blocked.
You feel stuck and you just don't know.
Open your heart to give who you are;
Forgiving starts the flow.*

Keep the flow going in your life. When you are open to give, you are also open to receive and this is perfection. Start the flow by creating what you want to receive and then give it to the world.

Your life flows eternally.

I will remain open at all times.

GIFTS

*Love comes easy
When we live without strife.
Among all the gifts of choice,
The greatest gift we can give is our life.*

There is no substitute for you. No object can compare to the life you live or any gift you can give. Keep your heart light by giving all the love that exists there.

The gift of life has been given to you.
Pass it on.

I will give my life.

GLORY

*Glory is that bright glow
Shining the heart's special place.
Created from the love
Found in the state of grace.*

The glory of ALL is around you, within you, and bestowed upon you. Allow yourself to see the glory in each breath, for it is with this perspective that your dream will become heaven.

See the divine glory in the world.

I will glorify the world with my heart.

GOAL

*Each goal directs the path
On this dust bowl.
Since choice is my life,
Oneness with God is the goal.*

You need only have one goal in life. All emanates from the one. Choose your goal wisely as your goal forms your intentions and directs your attention. Each piece of the dream will be formed from within the goal.

You are the goal.

I will choose the goal.

GUIDE

*Life is like the ocean,
Creating the flow as the tide.
Love keeps the heart warm
When the Spirit is the guide.*

What is your guide? Have you allowed your SELF to be the guide? All is pointing toward you being the guide, as life has been given to you. Remembrance of who you are will guide you to the oneness you seek.

You are the guide.

I will be SELF guided.

HELP YOURSELF

*Suddenly set free to be,
As you accept no boundary.*

You want to help so many and you wind up feeling empty when you haven't given yourself what you need. Give your SELF exactly what you need by giving your SELF exactly what you want. Your desires are from the Creator. Giving to your SELF is maintaining the natural order within the universe. Redeem your SELF.

Your divine nature is asking for your attention.

I will redeem my SELF.

INSPIRATION

*Let me breathe in for I am inspired.
Living life to its natural end.
Giving my all with one thought in mind,
The oneness with my greatest friend.*

When you breathe in, you accept the spirit and you are truly inspired. You have been created by the same spirit that gives life to you in each breath. You are at your most inspired moment.

You are truly living in spirit.

I will make the best with each breath.

KARMA

*Receiving what you want
Is the result of good karma.
You cause each effect in your life
When you accept your dharma.*

The universe has a perfect accounting system. You will receive what you give. Accept your purpose in life and you will become the cause. As you become the cause, your life becomes what you create. Cause your dreams to come true.

You are the creator of your life.

I will be the cause.

LAND

*One of man's truly wealthy resources
Is the fruitful land.
Natural laws give rise to a constant flow
Of life right at hand.*

Use the land, it is a physical life source. Your body is made from the dust of the earth, it is also a physical life source. Let us connect each source with the Source allowing no space for separation. Our awareness of the perfection of the sources is the nature of nature.

All is God and all is good.

I will witness perfection in nature.

MOTIVATE

*Getting someone to find the power within
Is helping them find the power to create.*

*Give your life to someone
When you want to motivate.*

Use your power to create. Your life will be an example for the world to see that perhaps they too can create from within. Using and giving your life is the greatest way known to motivate others. Are you ready to give your life now?

Use your power to motivate the world.

I will give my life to create and motivate.

NAVIGATE

*When you want to find your way,
Pointing to heaven from hate.
Search your heart for the path,
The love inside will navigate.*

The path will become clear as truth becomes the goal. Allow ourselves to accept truth beyond deception, greed, addiction, tradition, desire and concept. Let go of all that you think you know and want to accept. This process will bring peace and peace will direct you home.

Navigate your way back to the source.

I will accept truth and let peace be the guide.

OBVIOUS

*News reports show victims in despair
Giving plenty of attention to crime.
While billions of people around the world
Are sharing love all the time.*

What is obvious? Are we making joy and peace obvious? Create joy in the simplest ways. Create a reason to smile. When you wear a big beautiful smile, do you notice that you feel better? People around you feel it too. Let your inner happiness glow.

Let your joy be obvious.

I will create reasons for joy.

PASSION

*Your life is free.
Live beyond thought of ration.
Express your freedom joyfully.
Give your SELF the gift of Passion.*

*Passionate love we all want to make
With each other beyond the gate.*

You will know life completely when you live passionately.

Passion awaits you.

I will choose passion.

POSITIVE

*I gave attention to the desires of my heart,
Pointing me in a positive direction.
Joy entered the picture with a smile.
Caressing my soul.
Harmonizing happiness all the while.*

I accept the desires of my heart as an intuitive guide. Not only do I like the way I feel, my life is valuable and precious. I am focused on the pieces of the dream that will complete my life.

Appreciate each moment and each moment will appreciate you.

I will fill my life with positive energy.

PRESENT

I wrap beautiful colors around the rainbow of life.

Each moment creating the present.

Not a linear path of spectacular brilliance,

But arched and ever so-slightly bent.

The future is not promised and the past no longer exists. The ever-evolving present is being unwrapped daily. Make sure that it is exactly what you want it to be. The moment called now is pre-sent by a creative source. Let this creative source be you.

Life is a lovely gift of now created by me.

I will paint the picture of life the way I want it.

QUEEN

You are the most beautiful.

You are the greatest woman ever seen.

You are my lady, my wife.

You are my heart, my soul and my queen.

The queen is the woman who loves her SELF. The queen is wife, mother, grandmother, girlfriend, ghetto girl, prostitute, bitch, and so-called average woman. Look beyond, what you think you see to the love inside that is the real queen. All women are queens.

The Queen is love.

I will give all women my love.

REFLECTIONS

*Open your eyes.
What do you see
As you ask life to show
What love is to be?*

The universe is a reflection of the state of being within you. When you describe the universe, you are really describing what's on the inside of you. Thoughts, feelings, beliefs, perceptions and perspectives are tools for you to see your SELF.

You are the center of the universe.

I will see my SELF everywhere.

RELATIONSHIP

*I'll show you me
And you show me you.
Together;
We'll know what is true.*

Truth can only be recognized and realized inside the relationship. The essence of the relationship is the Creator. Let us relate with each other as much as possible. In our search for the truth, we will come together in unity and in love. Let us begin, now.

Truth is in all relationships.

I will respect the relationships of my life.

REVOLUTION

*The revolution will not be televised.
It will be heart, mind and soul revised.*

The revolution will not be televised because there is no camera for soul except awareness. The transformation process is internal. What you witness with your eyes are the effects of the revolution.

Revolution is redemption.

I will redeem my SELF.

SHARING

*Help me see,
That all my knowledge is just for show,
If I don't use it to help someone else grow
To be the best that they can be,
And then in turn maybe they will help me.*

Sharing creates relationships. When you share the best you have, the best relationships are the result.

Sharing me with you has made us.

I will share my best and appreciate the rest.

STAMINA

*Staying at peace is the song
That will maintain pace for so long.*

Your strength comes from within. Look to your heart and accept what you see. This perspective will bring peace and you will witness your dream. Stamina is created to maintain your realized dream. Peace is as much a part of you as you are your SELF.

Celebrate peace.

I will live in peace.

UNSEEN BROTHER

*No more has been given to the world,
Than the love of another.
The greatest love of all
Has been given by the unseen brother.*

Many people have claimed the glory for the goodness that we witness. The people that have been the foundation of goodness have usually gone unnoticed and unmentioned. Let us honor the unseen energy of God in all people.

The unseen is at your center.

I will discover my SELF – Amen.

VISION

*Vision is the gift you give your SELF,
While you create the world and all its wealth.*

*Hold on to nothing, it will keep you free,
Free from worry and anxiety.*

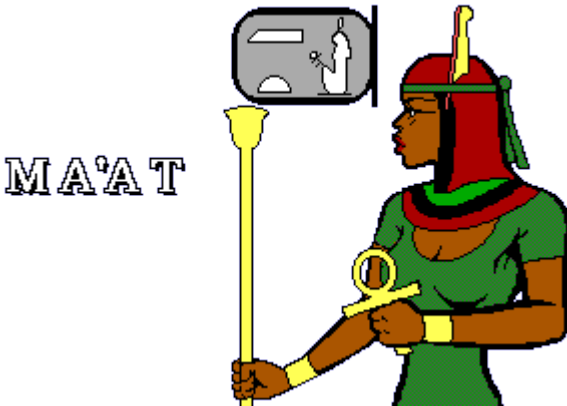

Your vision gives life to the world. It creates all the beauty you see. Your vision is your state of being, within. Insight inward will witness the truth as it is created.

The world awaits your vision of beauty.

I will create beauty by seeing beauty in all.

Chapter 5

JUDGEMENT

*Have I done all that I can do?
For this question we will face,
On this journey upward
To that heavenly place.*

AFFLUENCE

*When you remember the source,
You will have no need.
Experience in truth
Is how the spirit will heed.*

Affluence occurs when there is no need. Affluence can be witnessed as you allow yourself to only see solutions. Open to affluence and abundance. You become affluent as you let go of worry and struggle. Let go of how it will get accomplished, have faith and do what your heart is telling you to do.

Affluence is freedom.

I will experience the wealth true freedom brings.

AS YOU ARE

Can I love myself as I am?

Do I allow myself to be naturally?

Do I lock my growth in fear and reason?

I will let go of judgement this season.

You will always be you no matter what you think or where you go or what you do. Let us learn to love all just as it is. When we learn to love all just as it is, when it changes, our love does not. Include all in your eternal love and all will be loved eternally.

You are eternal love.

I will love all as is.

BELIEF

*Remember your oneness,
At the center is relief.
Beauty will appear different
It is all in your belief.*

It appears that there are many different beliefs. The truth is that there is only one belief and only one religion. It is part of perfection that belief and religions will appear to be different. Accept your belief as well as others. Believe what you will, but remain open for the truth to put religion to its purpose.

All belief has one beginning and one purpose.

I will accept all.

CHOICE

*The power of choice
Comes from the will,
But only when it is free,
Can it keep your heart still.*

Unconditional love gave birth to free will. All of your power and freedom is in your choice. Will you choose to read about God or would you choose to know and become one with God? Will you choose to give peace and love?

Your life is your choice.

I will make all choices based on knowledge of my SELF.

COMPARISON

*Are you to be compared to someone else?
Is there truth in the concept of better or best?
Live your life giving what you want to receive
And heaven will result from the test.*

Your life is naturally unique. Comparing uniqueness is pointless. Sharing uniqueness is valuable. Distinguishing uniqueness is insight into respect and appreciation of the qualities of all.

Appreciate all uniquely.

I will respect all uniqueness.

COMPLIMENT

*Can you say something pleasing to someone's ear
Without them feeling some sort of fear?
You know the way in which it was meant.
It was nothing more than a compliment.*

Your words have power, because they reflect the heart's intention. Think positive thoughts, speak positive words and commit positive actions. We can also learn to accept positive from others. As we accept ourselves, accepting positive becomes easier.

Positive creates positive.

I will be positive to all.

CONTROL

*Are you the supreme being on this dust bowl?
Are you afraid when you feel you don't have control?*

Would you prefer a partnership rather than control? In truth, we have a partnership with all in the universe. Let go of the fear that would have you feel the need to control. Instead, develop relationships that are eternally full of life, love, peace and joy.

Only relationships exist, desire oneness.

I will develop loving relationships.

ENEMY

*You point outside yourself to blame
The one that causes you grief.
I say the problem is within.
The greatest enemy is disbelief.*

The enemy exists in a place where the greatest battles occur. Once disbelief is released, you can become one and live as the example for all those who will pay attention to themselves. Bring peace to your inner struggle. Believe in your SELF and bring heaven home.

Make home heaven.

I believe in my SELF.

FULL CIRCLE

*Most of the time we feel that circles
Are not how we want to think or talk.
But full circle is how we will return to the source
After taking life for a long walk.*

To complete your journey, you will return to the source of your creation. Step into your highest SELF, thus completing your transformation. Once you complete this full-circle journey, you will have no image, only SELF.

The world awaits your complete acceptance.

I will submit to the source.

FUTURE

*Do you think that hope for tomorrow is the cure?
Do you know that there will be a tomorrow for sure?*

Are you working for retirement? Are you putting your life off until some later joy? That's a damn shame! Give your life now to whatever you are going to give it to in the future. This is how the future is transformed into the present.

Live life now.

I will live the dream now.

GOD

*There is no secret. No mystery to reveal.
The God you know and love is definitely real.*

*Thoughts you create about God
And all the attributes you make,
Create God for you
And is the form God will take.*

Did God create us or did we create God? Do not be afraid; live whatever you believe and you'll find the truth. If you are holding on tight to your concept of God, then odds are you would rather be safe than know the truth. Let go of your fear and discover the truth.

God is the living Truth.

I will make no substitutes for the truth.

HEART

*As long as you have lived,
Your heart has never lied.
It guides you through your life
While growing heaven inside.*

Your heart tells you of comfort and discomfort throughout your life. Despite thoughts, it knows the truth. It knows that the truth is the only way.

Heart is made of the strongest substance.

I will live the truth and keep my heart strong.

HERO

*The original hero is Heru.
One of the greatest stories is a heist.
Learn the lessons from this story,
For it is the story of Christ.*

The story of Christ follows a pattern set by the people of ancient Egypt (Kemet). Where the story was written originally is not to be argued. The truth is to be sought beyond the story or proof of fact. Learn. Become a hero, become the redeemer, become Heru, become Christ, or reach a state of Brahman. All is good.

The kingdom is within.

I will become one with.

KNOWLEDGE

Knowledge is to help us all become free.

Three realms of enlightenment include the known, the unknown and the unknowable. Knowledge lets one know where the known ends and the unknown begins. The unknown is the realm of enlightenment that is the path to the unknowable. Let knowledge become the beacon to the place where fears have no home.

Freedom is the truth that knowledge offers.

I will accept knowledge as my pathway to redemption.

MEANING

*I want to defend my position,
On these thoughts I am leaning.
Against you I fight, not knowing that
We truly share the meaning.*

Meaning is the purpose for existence. Meaning is often defended, despite its temporary nature. It is arbitrary. It is a choice. Meaning is in constant search for the truth within its own life. Life and truth are beyond meaning, but all will be revealed as you accept your SELF.

Life creates meaning.

I will accept the nature of all and meaning will be revealed.

PLAY YOUR GAME

*The only game you can truly win
Is the one you have the greatest interest in.*

Do you feel like you're going to win the game? Listen to your heart. The only way to create your dream and your reality is to play the game that is the essence of your very nature. This game is the one you create and the one that has the reward that you have chosen. This is the game of SELF.

The game is to give God aim.

I will be my SELF.

POWER

*For so long, you chose to be the victim,
Receiving a sympathy shower.
Once you see your ability to create,
Produce you will, with this new found power.*

Your great power is not found in claiming that someone or something else had the power to create a situation that could not be challenged, therefore making you powerless in your own world. Your great power is found within; it is your ability to create.

Creativity is power.

I will create in each moment.

REALIZE

*What you see
You have been made to realize.
But what is truth
Must be seen using your real eyes.*

Often we see reality as nothing more than perceptions, but truly our perceptions only bare witness to our inner state of being. The real is God again reflected outward. We realize by allowing what is on the inside to manifest on the outside.

Use your real eyes to see your SELF.

I will allow the best of me to be realized and perceived.

REASON

Intuition has conceived a child.

The child's name is reason.

When logic flows naturally,

Divinity is always in season.

“The word which appeared as a pillar of flame out of the darkness is the Son of God, born of the mystery of the mind. The name of the Word is Reason. Reason is the offspring of Thought and Reason shall divide the light from the darkness and establish Truth in the midst of the waters.” – Egyptian Proverb Life is beyond reason.

I will live beyond thought.

RULES

*Dreams are realized when rules are broken,
Rules within perception are not permanent,
They are mere tokens.*

Rules form a perceived reality and distinguish themselves as functions of a dream. Once you allow a rule change, you change your reality as well as your dreams. Rules are tools, but if you don't remember that you create rules, you fall victim to the so-called rules.

You create the rules.

I will create the rules of my realized dreams.

SCIENCE

*Religion says that an attribute of God is Omniscience
Battles of religion and science wage far too long.
Would you like to know or live in judgement eternal?
Stuck in the moral choice of right and wrong?*

Science basically means knowing. Knowing is gathered through experience. There is no substitute for the knowledge of experience. Do you seek to be one with God? It would seem that science is the way to this oneness. Science and religion are one.

All knowings lead to God.

I will come to know through experiencing each piece of the dream.

SELF-DETERMINATION

*Who's life am I living?
Are these my thoughts?
I choose to create my life,
Despite what I've heard
And despite what I've been taught.*

We have been trained from an early age to accept certain conditions. We have allowed conditions to determine our state of being. Let your reference point be your SELF. What and who you are is of your conscious choosing. Educate your SELF and apply your SELF.

I create my self through conscious choice.

I will refer to my SELF at all times.

THINK

*Your world has been created from within,
Before one could blink.*

*You think of yourself as creation,
But you are truly not what you think.*

You are the creator of your thoughts. Your thoughts do not tell you who you are. Go beyond what you think. Let the truth reveal all. Let the truth reveal who you are and who God is.

You are not who you think you are.

I will accept my SELF beyond thought.

WORTHY

*Remember,
You are created of the highest quality.
Your worth can hardly be measured.
Who you are has been molded by the BEST.
Your worth need only be treasured.*

Being worthy has never been a question, but an answer to a question. Take a deep breath and remember how this gift is constantly given to you.

You have been made worthy.

I will make each moment beautiful by seeing beauty in every creation.

ELEVATION

Chapter 6

ACCEPTANCE

*Free from question, doubt, or judgement,
Life has been given to you.
Vision you want is covered with denial,
Acceptance will clear the view.*

ATTENTION

You intend to live your dreams

And listen to your heart.

Focus your attention inward.

It is the place to start.

Attention is the way to give life to your intention. Your attention is your energy within the universe. Your attention is your life. Use your attention wisely as you become aware of the pieces of your dream.

Your dream awaits your attention.

I will give attention to each piece of my dream.

AWARENESS

*Keeping my eyes open for disaster
Not allowing myself to have a master.*

All that is here to enjoy will not take addictive control over me. I will remain aware of the nature of each tool within the universe.

I remove the need for God by becoming one.

I will be aware of my place within the relationships within my life.

CONSISTENCY

*When you do what it consists of
You are doing what it takes.
Brilliant forms of perfection
Is the substance consistency makes.*

When you do what your dream consists of, it no longer is a dream, but has been given your life and becomes a part of the real. The dream becomes guaranteed because you are in the process of giving it life. Focus on what each piece of the dream consists of and live it. Bring every detail of your dream to life.

Consistently realize each piece of the dream.

I will bring every detail of my dream to life through consistency.

CREATIVITY

Power of the Creator lives within.

Divine nature uses its sensitivity

To be aware of all

And it's continuing creativity.

What would you create, if you knew you couldn't fail? There is no failure. You either use your creativity or you don't. Creativity is reproducing the truth. Your nature is divine and the Creator lives within awaiting your openness. Open your heart to the Creator and creativity will fill your life.

Your eternal life begins with the acceptance of the Creator within.

I will create consciously.

ENLIGHTENMENT

*The shadow is behind the one
Who finds his destiny is the sun.*

Enlightenment is a journey, not a destination. Enlightenment is a transformation process that will occur as often as one can accept. Enlightenment is awareness and acceptance of truth. The more judgements one holds on to, the heavier the heart. Living the truth makes your heart lighter than a feather.

Enlightenment lights the way.

I will live the truth in peace.

FAITH

*No need for fear,
Love has always been here.*

Faith is that spiritual energy which forms the relationship between desire and its fulfillment. Faith will work and is abundant in life. Put faith in faith and it will have the power to change your life forever.

Faith is strengthened when you give your life.

I will have faith in my SELF.

FORGIVENESS

*Looked right past the hypocrite I see,
To the love inside that is the real me.
I see you.*

Forgiveness is the greatest gift you can give to your SELF. It is a gift for you. It clears the pathway to love.

Choose forgiveness. We await your blessing.

I will forgive the entire world for all transgressions.

FREE YOUR MIND

*The mind has been entangled in false logic,
While freedom is under wraps.
Once in line with the truth,
It breaks the walls of the mental traps.*

Freeing your mind is the choice between thinking and knowing. The only true way to free your mind is to become one with the truth, which is exactly what you desire. Accept the desires of your innermost heart and your mind becomes free.

As the heart becomes light, the mind becomes free.

I will listen to the meditations of my heart.

INTENTION

*Dreams will become real.
Reality you will bend,
When you place attention
On what you intend.*

Your intention desires life. Your intention is your dream. Let your intention be free and life giving. Intelligence is a natural component within intention. Intention will direct attention to its SELF and the dream will be born. Focus on your intention.

Give life to your intention.

I intend to realize my dream completely.

INTUITION

*The peace I seek has already been found
In the heart so deep where there is no sound.*

Intuition is a friend that will appear from the unknown. This friend walks hand-in-hand with knowledge until knowledge knows itself, bringing life in small, unknown, adventurous packages called the present.

Intuition opens the pathway for love the same as it does for knowledge. Intuition transports desires of the heart to the mind where they are conceived in form and are perceived.

Follow the stairway to Heaven.

I will open my heart and free my mind and let intuition be the guide.

JUSTICE

*Justice has kept the heart light.
A feather balanced on the scale to weigh.
With the truth in all your actions,
There's nothing left to say.*

Justice is a child of truth. Truth perceived is justice conceived. Honor all actions with truth and justice is the result.

Justice is your divine nature.

I will let justice guide my actions.

LAUGHTER

*Liberating
All
Un-
Godly
Happenings
Through Experiencing Reality*

Laughter is a key ingredient in life. When you allow yourself laughter, realize how free you feel. Seriousness feels like a disease from this new found perspective. Releasing the pressure you've placed on life has cleared the pathway to peace.

Free the world through your laughter.

I will accept laughter as a piece of the dream.

LISTENING

*Your ears are open when you want to hear,
But listening will make you whole.
The effects of listening are life giving and easy,
All you need do is open your soul.*

The power of listening becomes greater as you use it. The deeper you listen, the more harmony you feel. Your awareness grows as you listen. Listen to the love in your life, it will direct you on your path.

Listen to your heart.

I will listen.

NAME

What's in a name?

Can it tell you who you are?

Look beyond the meaning given from without.

Look within to see what truth is really about.

Look beyond what you've been taught and look beyond all thought. It is this place where the true meaning of your name can be found. It is a place where there is no sound. Silence is the language found here. The beauty that you are will be found quite near. Just listen.

Listen to your SELF.

I will listen to my SELF.

NATURAL

*I've always found a fight with nature
To be useless and profoundly odd.
When understood with the help of intuition
Natural means on the way to God.*

Natural laws can be lived. Natural laws maintain perfection. Because your nature is divine, you are already on the way to God. Allow your dreams to flow naturally into reality.

You are natural.

I will live the natural flow.

RECIPROCITY

*Reciprocity is built on respect to be true.
Giving and receiving for the both of you.*

All relationships are based on reciprocity whether either party is aware. The paradoxical law is such that you will receive what you give. Be prepared to give what you want to receive. If someone is giving love, give love in return. If you want love, give love. Live the highest form of love you can.

Love completely.

I will love all completely.

SOVEREIGNTY

Have you accepted the terms of the contract?

Are you a Fourteenth Amendment citizen?

You make endless petitions to the court.

Do you know the ears to which your cries fall?

The place of your power is written is on the wall.

Sovereignty is the simple answer. Your rightful place was given to you at birth, without need of a document. All written thoughts, no matter how well articulated, fall short of the true measure of you. Accept the natural universal laws that govern your relationship with all.

You are sovereign.

I will accept my truly divine nature.

WE ARE OUR ANCESTORS

– William 'ATEN' Danner

*Stop shielding my eyes,
Ignoring the Ancestors
And engage my power to rebuild.
Kings and Queens we are,
On their shoulders we stand.
We must accept the truth to be healed.*

There is only one ultimate ancestor. We all share that ancestor. We are truly one big family.

The truth is our Ancestor.

I will accept my divine heritage.

WILL

*You're standing in the known,
Hoping to learn more.
Power of the will,
Will take you beyond unknown's door.*

Will power is one of your great powers. Use your will power to bring about the dreams you intend to live. Let your will give birth to intentions that will create a greater awareness of SELF and knowledge of your divine nature. Practice your will power daily.

Use your will power.

I will.

WISDOM

*Whenever I want to know me,
I look to my heart and accept what I see.
I am what God created me.*

This truth will eternally be. Wisdom is understanding how to apply knowledge. The path is made clear by opening to love and intuition. Knowledge matures into wisdom as it comes to know itself through life experiences. Following hunches is the easiest way to wisdom. You don't have to know how it works, just get started.

Wisdom is to listen to one's SELF.

I will pay attention and follow the hunches that appear in my heart.

TRANSFORMATION

*Life and death will sing together,
When becoming has begun.
Transforming you to the One
Is the darkness of the sun.*

AMEN

Hidden energy – Amen
Is the hidden inner-G within all men.

Amen, also Amin from an ancient Egypt (Kemet) term Amon-Ra, it means the hidden energy of God. It is the energy that exists between Creator and creation. Amen is the peace of God. It is at the end of prayers to serve as connector to the prayer's response. When it is spoken, the connection is made and the prayer can be heard and answered.

Amen is at your center.

I will discover my SELF – Amen.

BLISS

*Let yourself be aware,
As that gaze becomes a profound stare.*

Do you know that feeling, the feeling of extreme happiness and joy? Bliss occurs when there is no need. Let yourself become aware of the profound things that occur in your life. Bliss occurs in absolute truth.

All is bliss.

I will allow joy to grow to bliss.

CHRIST

*A little more than a memory,
Fading into oneness are the illusions of my mind
Recognition, death, resurrection, ascension, judgement and acceptance
On your way to becoming Christ
These progressions you will find.*

Christ is not a person, but a level. The Christ experience happens more than once in a lifetime, but more like every breath, every moment. When someone offers themselves in unconditional love, they have become Christ. For as long as unconditional love is given, so is Christ.

Let us all become Christ.

I will love unconditionally.

COMPLEMENT

*Do you have a loving friend?
They have that warm and giving trait.
They help you when you need.
They are your soul mate.*

A soul mate starts as your friend and remains a friend. A complementary relationship is one that is built from reciprocity, as fulfillment is the complement of desire. True value exchanges are the only exchanges that take place. Find the value within each relationship and then give that value to the other. Be a friend. Be a soul mate.

Complement the world by being its fulfillment.

I will befriend all.

ETERNAL

*Love comes easy, until dawn.
Next day changes, will you be gone?*

If someone acts beautiful today and ugly the next, allow your love to be just the energy they need to become whatever they choose. Are you willing to give everyone the freedom to choose and grow? Will you continue to love them even when you don't know?

Unconditional love is eternal.

I will give unconditional love eternally.

FAITH

*Created through love,
Lighting the hearts and minds of all.
Spirits reveal powerful life,
Answering with faith to every call.*

Faith is the substance used to create an environment of oneness between Creator and creation. Faith is used to transport desires to and from the Creator and creation. Faith is also the substance used to make your dreams and achieve your goals.

Apply your faith to your dreams.

I will apply faith in every moment.

HAPPINESS

*Happiness comes begging you,
Knocking on your door in the middle of the night.
After following you around all day,
Hoping this time you two can get it right.*

Happiness is always hoping for love at first sight, but most of the time after using many logical reasons, falls to its knees and then tries sympathy. Are you willing to give happiness a try? Are you going to make it wait? Pick any reason to choose happiness, any reason will do.

Happiness is a choice.

I will choose happiness.

HEALTH

*Until you give way to love,
The pain seems so stay.
Give heed to this simple logic,
Love the hurt away.*

Health will occur when peace has found a home within you. Health is peace. It is as easy as it sounds. Some things will appear to be work, but this perception will fade as peace replaces it.

Peace is the way to health.

I will be peaceful and health will be the result.

HEAVEN

*I want to create a place for you,
A place full of joy and laughter
For all to see and be.
All questions answered.
All desires fulfilled.
I want this place for you, forever.*

Giving heaven to someone else is the quickest way to receive it for your SELF. Because giving and receiving are the same energy, what you give you receive. Create the energy you want to receive and then give it to no end.

Heaven is within you.

I will have heavenly thoughts and actions.

HOME

*Home is where the heart is,
For this place has no bound.
In the center of this word
Is the highest spiritual sound.*

Home is the place where the soul lives. Home is the creative center of you that gives and receives all. Amen is home. Home is where all transformations occur. All manifestations of the SELF are created here. Home is the one place that you never leave and never leaves you. Enjoy.

You are always home.

I will enjoy the oneness of being home.

HONEST

To be honest is to bestow the highest honor.

Give the truth, it is now unmasked.

I'm willing to share myself with you.

A loving relationship we have at last.

If you want an honorable life, live honestly. Live the truth. The highest honor you can bestow upon your SELF is to give your SELF the truth. Accept no substitute, not even an image of SELF. All relationships are blessed by your honesty.

Honesty blesses all.

I will be honest.

KNOW THY SELF

Transformed and redeemed,

My soul is free.

I love my SELF now;

The enlightened me.

Pay attention to your SELF and your SELF will pay attention to you. Your divine nature will be revealed to you.

Knowing your SELF is oneness.

I will pay attention to my SELF.

LOVE

Is love an emotion?

Is love the effect or the cause?

Is love the greatest force in the universe?

Discover love's nature as you emerge.

Love is the air we breathe. Love is the very life that pulsates through every level of our being. If we believe that love is not the Creator, then perhaps we believe that love is a creation and can die. Let us give ourselves the truth concerning love. Let us redeem love in truth.

The Creator is love.

I will create with love.

OPEN

*You were created open
To experience your divinity in nature.*

Open is the creator of the universe. Open your heart to give love and you will receive it. Open your heart to love and you create love. Open your mind to new thoughts and the world will feel brand new. Open your heart to it all and you will have it all.

Open your heart and mind.

I will remain open.

PERFECTION

*We give the world an imperfect face
All the time trying to escape that place.*

Perfection has called our name many times, but we have answered, "I am not the one." We were created through perfection and still we deny. We hold on to imperfection so tightly that we won't give perfection an opportunity to live. Imperfection is an illusionary veil of ignorance that will fade away as we accept perfection. Imperfection does not exist in truth.

Let go of imperfection.

I will accept each moment as perfect.

REDEMPTION

*Redeem yourself.
Let us not be confused.
The only way to heaven
Is when the truth is not refused.*

Redemption is the transformation process of rethinking, such as sinning to Christhood. Redemption starts with a spiritual question, such as, "How can I help?" The seven steps that follow are recognition, death, resurrection, ascension, judgement, acceptance and transformation. This revolutionary process is peace.

Awareness of truth is the key to redemption.

I will redeem my Self.

SOLUTIONS

*There are no problems,
Only solutions exist.
There is only God.*

We are taught that the solution can be found within the problem. As we look deeper, we find that by definition, a solution can only be a solution if the problem no longer exists. If both previous statements are true, a problem could only be an illusion. My thoughts exactly. The solution is the only reality.

You are the solution.

I will meditate on my inner most essence. The solution will present itself.

SPIRITUALITY

Related to love as life's flowing blood.

Souls touch each other.

Gently caressing the heart

As one spirit inside another.

Spirituality is the quality of the spirit within. The spirit is everything. The easiest way to experience spirit is to breathe. Look into each relationship you have and you will witness the spirit. Spirituality is the quality of the relationship.

Spirituality is the only reality.

I will let the sun shine on each relationship within my life.

TRUST

*If you want a good relationship,
Trust you must not break.
When you live the truth,
Good love you will make.*

Trust is the highest truth. Trust is accepted and lived. When an expectation is not met within a relationship, the trust is thought to be broken. What really has happened is that something desired is held more dear than the truth. If you want good relationships, live the trust.

Trust sustains relationships.

I will uphold the trust in all relationships.

TRUTH

*Seek the truth
Beyond the doctrine you've been taught,
To the truth beyond concept,
Beyond time and space,
And yes, even beyond thought.*

The truth is the unmoved mover. The truth is creating life in every moment. It presents itself completely in everything at all times.

Under and in back of the Universe of Time and Space and Change is ever to be found
The Substantial Reality: The Fundamental Truth. – Egyptian Proverb

I will accept the truth completely in each moment.

UNITY

*Unity occurs when you feel
In your heart of hearts
That you don't know when it will end
'Cause in truth
You've never been apart from the start.*

Unity means acceptance of the perfect one. Unity occurred for the first time, when the Creator created creation. Whenever you accept a relationship, unity has found a home in you. All relationships begin with you. Love your SELF and all relationships will reflect that love.

Unity is the relationship.

I will love the first relationship; the one between me and my SELF.

Pieces of a Dream

Inspirations

Move toward peace
Peace will take you to your dreams.

Created in the heart,
by the spirit to appear in the mind.
